RESOLUTIONS OF NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ON PARLIAMENTARY PRIMARIES IN OUTSTANDING CONSTITUENCIES

The New Patriotic Party (NPP), at its National Executive Committee meeting held on Tuesday, April 9, 2024, passed the following resolutions in respect of the party's parliamentary primaries in the five (5) outstanding constituencies in accordance with Article 12 of the Party Constitution:

1. LA DADEKOTOPON

The National Executive Committee agreed to open nominations for the conduct of parliamentary primaries in the constituency on account of the resignation of Dr. Joseph Gerald Tetteh Nyanyofio as parliamentary candidate

2. AKAN CONSTITUENCY

The National Executive Committee agreed to open nominations for the conduct of parliamentary primaries in the constituency on account of the passing of the late parliamentary candidate, Hon. Amb. Rashid Bawa

3. AGONA WEST CONSTITUENCY

The National Executive Committee agreed to reinstate Mr. Joseph Afankwah as an aspiring parliamentary candidate in the constituency primaries

4. EJISU CONSTITUENCY

The National Executive Committee adopted the Report of the Ejisu Parliamentary Vetting Committee to clear all nine(9) aspirants who have duly filed nominations to contest in the primaries

5. YENDI CONSTITUENCY

The National Executive Committee has confirmed Hon. Farouk Aliu Mahama as the party's parliamentary candidate for the constituency.

The Party shall publish appropriate guidelines for the conduct of the parliamentary primaries in the outstanding constituencies.
