STATEMENT ON THE OCCASION OF THE CELEBRATION OF MAY DAY IN GHANA BY HON. ALAN KYEREMATEN

As we join the global comity of nations to celebrate May Day, I salute the hardworking and gallant workers of Ghana, whose dedication and tireless efforts have been the driving force behind our country's socio-economic development. Their resilience, ingenuity, and unwavering commitment have been the cornerstone of our success as a nation.

I recognize the challenges that workers have faced over the years, including low wages, unsafe working conditions, and inadequate social protection. These challenges have been exacerbated by the unprecedented decline in our economy in recent years.

On behalf of the Movement for Change, the Alliance for Revolutionary Change, and on my own behalf as the Presidential Candidate of the Alliance, we commit to working collaboratively with the leadership of the various unions, to develop policy solutions that address the pressing issues facing workers, in line with the Workers' Manifesto of the TUC. We will champion their rights and well-being, and build an environment where every worker is respected, protected, and empowered to fulfill their potential. Together, we will work to inspire a new mindset and attitudinal change in Ghana, that will reflect a renewed spirit of patriotism. As provided for in the Constitution of Ghana, we will act with courage, commitment, and conviction "to protect and preserve public property, and expose and combat misuse and waste of public funds and property."

As we approach the scheduled date for the General Elections in December this year, I call upon all Ghanaians to vote for a new leadership that will usher in a truly representative Government of National Unity - one that transcends partisan lines and prioritizes the building of a prosperous, united, and peaceful Ghana, where every citizen, including our dedicated workers, can thrive and prosper in freedom.

Happy May Day

Ghana Will Rise Again
